Welcome!

Greetings from Alloway and Fisherton Parish Church of Scotland

Dear Friends

“The church is wherever God's people are praising,
singing God's goodness for joy on this day.
The church is wherever disciples of Jesus
remember his story and walk in his way.”

On behalf of the Kirk Session and congregation of Alloway and Fisherton Parish Church may I welcome you to this area and to the parish which we serve.

As you may discover this Church of Scotland congregation is an active and busy one.

We have historic roots. However we hope that you find no similarities between the Alloway and Fisherton Parish of the twenty first century and that which Burns himself described in the eighteenth century as the “Auld Haunted Kirk”.

A warm welcome awaits the young and the young at heart as we seek in our worship and service to bear witness and to serve and to discover what it means to be disciples of our Master today

May God bless you.

Yours in Him

Rev Neil McNaught

Blessing on a New Home

“May Christ be here with you,
may He share in your joys and comfort in your sorrows,
may He inspire and help you to make your home a dwelling place of love, offering the Hospitality of God.
May peace be in this house “

Alloway and Fisherton Church has an active web site—

We would encourage you to visit our pages where you can read our weekly Pew News www.allowaychurch.org.

You will also discover links and contact details of our organisations including Sunday School, Boys Brigade, Scouts and Guides.

Sunday Morning Services

Most Sundays there are two services. One held at 9.30am at Fisherton Church and one at 10.30am at Alloway Church.

Wednesday Morning Services

These are held weekly at 10.30am in Alloway Church Halls apart from the first Wednesday in the month. A short service followed by a long cup of tea or coffee and time for fellowship.

Coffee and Chat

Held monthly on the first Wednesday of the month in the Fellowship Lounge of Alloway Church Halls. A time of fellowship.

Sunday School

Children join in the first part of Sunday worship and then go to the church halls for their own time together.
