THIS WEEK

Sunday 25 October

10.30am—Morning Worship

10.30am—Sunday School

Tea and coffee in the Church Halls following the service.

7.00pm – Pulse

Update on Work on South Transept - I am pleased to confirm that the replacement Cross has been successfully installed. Masonry repairs to the gable wall and porch will commence this week. The leaded glass in the swing doors between the chancel and vestibule has been removed and is currently being restored - the glass had become loose due to these doors over time being opened by the pushing of the glass rather than using the brass plates on the door frames.

Shoebox Appeal – There are wrapped shoeboxes in the Church Halls for those who would like to support this appeal. There are also leaflets for those who wish to wrap their own box. Filled boxes should be returned by the end of October.
