Welcome!

Greetings from Alloway Parish Church of Scotland

Dear Friends

“The church is wherever God's people are praising,
singing God's goodness for joy on this day.
The church is wherever disciples of Jesus remember his story and walk in his way.”

On behalf of the Kirk Session and congregation of Alloway Parish Church may I welcome you to this area and to the parish which we serve.

As you may discover this Church of Scotland congregation is an active and busy one.

We have historic roots. However we hope that you find no similarities between the Alloway Parish of the twenty first century and that which Burns himself described in the eighteenth century as the “Auld Haunted Kirk”.

A warm welcome awaits the young and the young at heart as we seek in our worship and service to bear witness and to serve and to discover what it means to be disciples of our Master today

May God bless you.

Yours in Him

Blessing on a New Home

“May Christ be here with you,
may He share in your joys and comfort in your sorrows,
may He inspire and help you to make your home a dwelling place of love, offering the Hospitality of God.
May peace be in this house “

Alloway Church has an active web site—www.allowaychurch.org.uk

We would encourage you to visit our pages where you can read our weekly Pew News www.allowaychurch.org.

You will also discover links and contact details of our organisations including Funday School, Boys Brigade, Scouts and Guides.

Sunday Morning Services

Most Sundays there are two services held at 9.45am and 11.15am

Occasionally one Family Service will be held when the time changes to 10.30am

During Covid restrictions, there will only be one service at 10.30am.

Wednesday Morning Services

These are held fortnightly on Wednesday at 11am in the Church Hall. A short service followed by a long cup of tea or coffee and time for fellowship.

During Covid restrictions there is a weekly service and digital tea/coffee via Zoom at 10.30am. Codes available from the secretary—secretary.allowaypc@gmail.com.

Funday School and Bible Class

Children join in the first part of Sunday worship at the 9.45am* service and then go to the church halls for their own time together.

*10.30am during restrictions.
